3.2 Amendment of Plans. Developer reserves the right to change the interior design and arrangement of all units so long as Developer owns the units so changed and altered, provided such change shall be reflected by an amendment of this Declaration, and provided, further, that an amendment for such purpose need be signed and acknowledged only by the Developer and need not be approved by the Association or apartment owners or by the Condominium, whether or not elsewhere required for an amendment.

further, that an amendment for such purpose need be signed and acknowledged only by the Developer and approved by the institutional mortgagee of apartments affected, where the said apartments are encumbered by individual mortgages, or where they are included in an overall construction mortgage on the Condominium building, and such amendment shall not require the approval of apartment owners, the Lessor, or of the Association.

3.3 Easements are expressly provided for and reserved in favor of the Developer, the owners and occupants of the Condominium building, their guests and invitees, as follows:

(a) Utilities. Easements are reserved through the Condominium property as may be required for utility services in order to serve the Condominium and the Recreation Area adequately, provided, however, such easements shall be only according to the plans and specifications for the building, or as the building is constructed, unless approved in writing by an apartment owner or the owner of the Recreation Area, as appropriate.

(b) Encroachments. In the event that any apartment or the Recreation Area shall encroach upon any of the common elements or upon any other apartment for any reason other than the intentional or negligent act of the apartment owner, or owner of the Recreation Area, or in the event any common element shall encroach upon any apartment, then an easement shall exist to the extent of such an encroachment so long as the same shall exist.

(c) Traffic. An easement shall exist for pedestrian traffic over, through and across sidewalks, paths, walks, halls, lobbies, elevators, center cores, and other portions of the common elements as may be from time to time intended and designated for such purpose and use; and for vehicular and pedestrian traffic over, through and across such portions of the common elements as may from time to time be paved and intended for such purposes, and such easement shall be for the use and benefit of the Developer, the apartment unit owners, the owner of the Recreation Area, and those claiming by, through or under the aforesaid; provided, however, nothing herein shall be construed to give or create in any person the right to park upon any portion of the Condominium property except to the extent that space may be specifically designated and assigned for parking purposes.

(d) Other WATERGATE CONDOMINIUMS. Easements are reserved and shall exist under, through and over the Condominium property as may be required for utility services to serve other WATERGATE CONDOMINIUMS heretofore or hereafter created, and for pedestrian traffic over, through and across sidewalks, paths and walks and for vehicular and pedestrian traffic over, through and across such portions of the common elements as may from time to time be paved and intended for such purposes, and such easement shall be for the use and benefit of the Developer, the owners and occupants of other WATERGATE CONDOMINIUMS heretofore or hereafter created.

3.4 Apartment boundaries. Each apartment shall include that part of the building containing the apartment that lies within the boundaries of the apartment, which boundaries are as follows:

(a) The upper and lower boundaries of the apartment shall be the following boundaries extended to an intersection with the perimetrical boundaries:

RE-1351
M-491

(1) Upper Boundaries - The horizontal plane of the undecorated finished ceiling.

(2) Lower Boundaries - The horizontal plane of the undecorated finished floor.

(b) The perimetrical boundaries of the apartment shall be the vertical planes of the center of the undecorated walls bounding the apartment extending to intersections with each other and with the upper and lower boundaries, and when there is attached to the building a balcony, loggia, terrace or canopy, the perimetrical boundaries shall be extended to include the same. The "center" of a wall shall be deemed to be a point lying midway between the undecorated finished interior of the wall and the undecorated finished exterior thereof, or, if the wall bounds another apartment, then a point midway between the undecorated finished interior of one apartment and the undecorated finished interior of the adjoining apartment.

3.5 Recreation Area. A Recreation Area has been leased by the Association as agent for the apartment owners and as agent for the apartment owners in other WATERGATE CONDOMINIUMS heretofore created or hereafter to be created pursuant to the provisions of a Ninety-Nine Year Lease. The Recreation Area shall be administered by the Association, and shall be available for the use of apartment owners without discrimination and without charge except where specifically authorized by this Declaration, except that the Association may adopt regulations providing for charging for exclusive use of the facilities by an apartment owner from time to time if such exclusive use is made available to all apartment owners, and the Association may further adopt regulations providing for a sur-charge for the use of such facilities by guests of the owners. Use of the recreational facilities shall be pursuant and subject to the provisions of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease. Additional recreational facilities may be owned as common elements, and such additional facilities shall be administered by the Association in the same manner as the leased area.

3.6 Apartments. There are forty-six (46) apartments in the apartment building, each apartment being identified by the use of a number, the first numeral of which shall designate the floor upon which the apartment is located, and the last two numerals of which shall identify the location of the apartment on the floor, as graphically described in Exhibit B attached hereto.

4. Appurtenances to Apartments. The owner of each apartment shall own an undivided share and certain interest in the Condominium property, which share and interest shall be appurtenant to the apartment, said undivided interest in the Condominium property and common elements being as designated and set forth in an Exhibit A attached hereto.

4.1 Limited Common Elements.

(a) Storage Space located within the building shall be assigned so as to provide at least one such space to the exclusive use of each apartment owner.

(b) Automobiles Parking Space. Limited common elements include covered parking spaces and areas and exterior parking space for each apartment, provided, however, in the event a specific parking space is assigned in connection with the sale of an apartment unit by the Developer, the right to use of the said designated parking space shall pass as an appurtenance to the Condominium apartment unit owned by the apartment owner to whom such space is initially assigned, and the Association shall not thereafter re-assign or change the said apartment owner's parking space without his written consent, provided, further, said apartment owner shall not transfer or assign use of the said parking space except in connection with sale of the condominium apartment unit, and provided further, Developer shall retain the right to assign all unassigned parking spaces until all apartments have been sold by it.

5. Liability for Common Expenses. Each apartment unit owner shall be liable for a proportionate share of the common expenses, such share being the same as the undivided share in the common elements appurtenant to his apartment. Such common expenses shall include that portion of the obligations and liabilities of the Association under the terms and provisions of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease which are attributable to the condominium.

6. Membership in Association. Membership of each apartment owner in the Association shall be required pursuant to the provisions of the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the Association. The interest of each apartment unit owner in the funds and assets of the Condominium held by the Association shall be in the same proportion as the liability of each such owner for common expenses.

7. Maintenance, Alteration and Improvement. Responsibility for the maintenance of the Condominium property, and restrictions upon its alteration and improvement shall be as follows:

7.1 Apartments.

(a) By the Association. The Association shall maintain, repair and replace at the Association's expense:

(1) All common elements and limited common elements.

(2) All portions of an apartment, except interior surfaces, contributing to the support of the apartment building, which portions shall include but not be limited to load-bearing columns and load bearing walls.

(3) All conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring, and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services contained in the portions of an apartment that service part or parts of the Condominium other than the apartment within which contained.

(4) All incidental damage caused to an apartment by reason of maintenance, repair and replacement accomplished pursuant to the provisions of 7.1 (a) (1), (2) and (3) above.

(b) By the Apartment Owner. The responsibility of the apartment owner for maintenance, repair and replacement, shall be as follows:

(1) To maintain, repair and replace at his expense all portions of his apartment except the portions to be maintained, repaired and replaced by the Association. Included within the responsibility of the apartment owner shall be windows, screens and doors opening into or onto his apartment. All such maintenance, repairs and replacement shall be done without disturbing the rights of other apartment owners.

REC-4854 MAR 1988

(2) An apartment owner shall not paint or otherwise decorate or change the appearance of any portion of the exterior of the apartment building without the prior approval, in writing, of the owners of record of fifty-one (51%) percent of the apartment units, and the approval of the Association.

(3) To promptly report to the Association any defect or need for repairs for which the Association is responsible.

7.2 Parking Spaces. The Association shall maintain and repair at the Association's expense all parking spaces, covered and uncovered, including those which have been assigned as an appurtenance to an apartment.

7.3 Recreation Area. Maintenance, repair, replacement, alteration and improvement of the Recreation Area shall be by the Association at the Association's expense, pursuant to the terms and provisions of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease.

7.4 Alteration and Improvement. After the completion of the improvements included in the common elements which are contemplated in the Declaration, there shall be no alteration or further improvements of common elements without the prior approval, in writing, by record owners of sixty-six and two thirds (66 2/3%) percent of all apartment unit owners in the Condominium, together with the approval of the Association. The cost of such alteration or improvement shall be a common expense and so assessed. Any such alteration or improvement shall not interfere with the rights of any apartment owner without his consent. This paragraph shall have no application to the right vested in the Developer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 3.2 and 3.2 (a) hereof.

8. Assessments. The making and collection of assessment against apartment owners for common expenses, and for reserves as may from time to time be established by the Association, shall be pursuant to the By-Laws of the Association, subject to the following provisions:

8.1 Interest; Application of Payments. Assessments and installments on such assessments paid on or before five (5) days after the date when due, shall not bear interest, but all sums not paid on or before ten (10) days after the date when due shall bear interest at the rate of ten (10%) percent per annum from the date when due until paid. All payments on account shall be first applied to interest and then to the assessment payment first due.

8.2 Lien for Assessments. The Association shall have a lien against each apartment unit for any unpaid assessments against the owner thereof, and for interest accruing thereon, which lien shall also accrue reasonable attorneys' fees incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien, whether or not legal proceedings are initiated. The said lien may be recorded among the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, by filing a claim therein which states the legal description of the apartment unit, and the amount claimed to be due, and said lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by the lien, together with all costs incurred in recording and enforcing said lien, shall have been paid. Such claims of lien may be signed and verified by an officer of the Association, or by a managing agent of the Association. Upon full payment, the party making payment shall be entitled to a recordable satisfaction of lien, to be prepared and recorded at his expense. All such liens shall be subordinate to the lien of mortgages or other liens recorded prior to the date of recording the claim of lien, and all such liens may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association in like manner as a foreclosure of a mortgage on real property. In any such foreclosure the owner of the apartment unit subject to the lien shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the apartment unit, and the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Association may also, at its option, sue to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments without thereby waiving the lien securing the same. In the event a mortgagee of a first mortgage of record shall obtain title to the apartment unit as a result of the foreclosure of a first mortgage, or in the event an institutional mortgagee as to a first mortgage of record shall obtain title to an apartment unit as the result of a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure of such first mortgage, such acquirer of title, its successors and assigns, shall not be liable for that share of the common expenses or assessments by the Association chargeable to the apartment, or the owner thereof, which became due prior to the acquisition of title by such institutional mortgagee or purchaser at foreclosure sale, and any such unpaid share of common expenses, or assessments, chargeable against any such foreclosed apartment unit, or against apartment unit transferred in lieu of a foreclosure, shall be deemed a common expense, to be paid in the same manner as other common expenses of the Condominium by all of the Condominium unit owners.

9. Association. The operation of the Condominium shall be by WATERGATE CONDOMINIUMS ASSOCIATION, INC., a corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida, which shall fulfill its functions pursuant to the following provisions:

9.1 Articles of Incorporation. A copy of the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, which sets forth its powers and duties, is attached as an Exhibit C.

9.2 By-Laws. A copy of the By-Laws of the Association is attached as an Exhibit D.

9.3 Limitation upon liability of Association. Notwithstanding the duty of the Association to maintain and repair portions of the Condominium property, the Association shall not be liable to apartment owners for injury or damage, other than the cost of maintenance and repair, caused by any latent condition of the property to be maintained and repaired by the Association, or caused by the elements or other owners or persons.

9.4 Restraint upon assignment of shares and assets. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot and shall not be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his apartment unit.

9.5 Approval or disapproval of matters. Whenever the decision of an apartment owner is required upon any matter, whether or not the subject of an Association meeting, such decision shall be expressed by the same person who would cast the vote of such owner if in an Association meeting, unless the joinder of record owners is specifically required by this Declaration.

9.6 The Association has been or may in the future be designated as the entity to administer and operate other WATERGATE CONDOMINIUMS, and shall maintain a separate budget for each Condominium operated and administered by it. It shall be the Association's sole responsibility and discretion to determine which items of cost, expense and income are attributable in their entirety to the Condominium, and which are to be apportioned amongst more than one Condominium, as well as the basis of such apportionment, and in all events the Association's determination as to such attribution shall be conclusive and binding, and all costs and expenses attributed to the Condominium, whether in their entirety or as an apportionment of an expense shared by more than one Condominium, shall constitute common expenses of the Condominium.

10. The insurance other than title insurance that shall be carried upon the Condominium property and the property of the apartment owners shall be governed by the following provisions:

10.1 Authority to purchase; named insured. All insurance policies upon the Condominium property shall be purchased by the Association. The named insured shall be the Association individually and as agent for the apartment unit owners, without naming them, and as agent for their mortgagees. Provisions shall be made for the issuance of the mortgagee endorsements and memoranda of insurance to the mortgagees of apartment owners. Such policies shall provide that payments by the insurer for losses shall be made to the insurance trustee designated below, and all policies and their endorsements shall be deposited with the insurance trustee. Unit owners may obtain coverage at their own expense upon their personal property and for their personal liability and living expense.

10.2 Coverage.

(a) Casualty. All buildings and improvements upon the Condominium property shall be insured in an amount equal to the insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, and all personal property included in the common elements shall be insured for its value, all as shall be determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. All such coverage, including the amount thereof and the insurance company issuing same, shall be subject to the approval of the institutional mortgagee holding the greatest dollar amount of first mortgages against apartments in the Condominium. Coverage shall afford protection against:

(1) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement, and

(2) Such other risks as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use as the buildings on the land, including but not limited to vandalism and malicious mischief.

(b) Public liability in such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors of the Association, including but not limited to hired automobile and non-owned automobile coverage, and with cross liability endorsements to cover liabilities of the apartment owners as a group to an apartment owner.

(c) Workmen's compensation insurance to meet the requirements of law.

(d) Insurance on the Recreation Area pursuant to the provisions of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease.

(e) Such other insurance that the Board of Directors of the Association shall determine from time to time to be desirable.

10.3 Premiums upon insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association as a common expense attributable to the Condominium.

SEE 4854 PAGE 196

10.4 Insurance Trustee; Share of proceeds. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association and the apartment owners and their mortgagees as their interests may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering property losses shall be paid to JEFFERSON NATIONAL BANK OF MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, as Trustee, or to such other bank in Florida with trust powers as may be designated as Insurance Trustee from time to time by the Board of Directors of the Association, the trustee being referred to herein as the Insurance Trustee, provided, however, that the selection of the Insurance Trustee is subject to the approval of the institutional mortgagees holding the greatest dollar amount of first mortgages against the apartment unit in the Condominium. The Insurance Trustee shall not be liable for payment of premiums nor for the failure to collect any insurance proceeds. The duty of the Insurance Trustee shall be to receive such proceeds as are paid and hold the proceeds in trust for the purposes elsewhere stated in this instrument and for the benefit of the apartment owners and their mortgagees in the following shares, provided, however, such shares need not be set forth on the records of the Insurance Trustee:

(a) Proceeds on account of damage to common elements and limited common elements. An undivided share for each apartment owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the common elements and limited common elements appurtenant to his apartment.

(b) Apartments. Proceeds on account of damage to apartment units shall be held in the following undivided shares:

(1) When the building is to be restored:
For the owners of damaged apartments in proportion to the cost of repairing the damage suffered by each apartment owner, said cost to be determined by the Association.

(2) When the building is not to be restored:
An undivided share for each apartment unit owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the common elements appurtenant to his apartment unit.

(c) Cost of restoration and repair of the Recreation Area after casualty shall be paid out of the proceeds from insurance, and the said Recreation Area shall in all events be repaired and restored unless there shall be not only a total destruction of the Recreation Area and appurtenances thereto, but in addition a destruction of a majority of the apartment units in the Condominium. In the event additional monies are required over and above the amount available from insurance proceeds to restore, reconstruct or repair the Recreation Area, such monies shall be considered a common expense, to be paid by the condominium unit owners and to be chargeable to and collectable from them in the same manner as elsewhere provided herein for the assessment and collection of assessments and common expenses, all pursuant to the provisions of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease.

(d) Mortgages. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to an apartment unit, the share of the unit owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the unit owner as their interests may appear; provided, however, that no mortgagees shall have any right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, and no mortgagees shall have any right to apply or have applied to the reduction of a mortgage debt any insurance proceeds except distributions of such proceeds made to the apartment owner and mortgagee pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration. Notwithstanding the foregoing the mortgagee shall have the right to apply or have applied to the reduction of its mortgage debt any or all sums of insurance proceeds applicable to its mortgaged unit in any of the following events:

(1) Its mortgage is not in good standing and is in default.

(2) Insurance proceeds are insufficient to restore or repair the building to the condition existing prior to the loss and additional monies are not available for such purpose.

10.5 Distribution of Proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies received by the Insurance Trustee shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners in the following manner:

(a) All expenses of the Insurance Trustee shall be paid first or provisions made for such payment.

(b) If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the cost thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such cost shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to apartment owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of, and may be enforced by, any mortgagee of an apartment.

(c) If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to apartment owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of, and may be enforced by, the mortgagee of an apartment.

(d) In making distribution to apartment owners and their mortgagees, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a Certificate of the Association made by its President and Secretary as to the names of the apartment owners and their respective shares of the distribution.

10.6 Association as Agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed Agent for each apartment owner and for each owner of any other interest in the Condominium property to adjust all claims arising under the insurance policies purchased by the Association and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of a claim.

10.7 Recreation Area. The terms of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease shall govern the distribution of proceeds of insurance on or attributable to such area, provided, however, that no distribution of proceeds shall be made to the Lessor unless it shall have been determined pursuant to the terms and provisions of the said Ninety-Nine Year Lease not to reconstruct or repair damage to the property demised thereunder.

11. Reconstruction or repair after casualty.

11.1 Determination to reconstruct or repair. If any part of the Condominium property shall be damaged by casualty, whether or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

(a) Common element. If the damaged improvement is a common element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.

(b) (1) Lesser damage. If the damaged improvement is the apartment building, and if apartments to which fifty (50%) percent of the common elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Directors of the Association to be tenatable, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless within sixty (60) days after the casualty, it is determined by agreement in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.

(2) Major damage. If the damaged improvement is the apartment building, and if apartments to which more than fifty (50%) percent of the common elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Directors to be not tenatable, then the damaged property will not be reconstructed or repaired, and the Condominium will be terminated without agreement as elsewhere provided, unless within sixty (60) days after the casualty, the owners of eighty (80%) percent of the common elements agree in writing to such reconstruction or repair.

(c) Certificate. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association made by its President and attested by its Secretary as to whether or not the damaged property is to be reconstructed or repaired.

11.2 Plans and specifications. Any reconstruction or repair must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original building, or, in lieu thereof, according to plans and specifications approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, and if the damaged property is in the apartment building, by the owners of not less than eighty (80%) percent of the common elements, including the owners of all damaged apartments, together with the approval of the institutional mortgagees holding first mortgages upon all damaged apartments, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

11.3 Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of one apartment for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the apartment owner, then the said owner shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty shall be that of the Association.

11.4 Estimates of costs. Immediately after a determination is made to rebuild or repair damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility of reconstruction and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to rebuild or repair.

11.5 Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair by the Association, or if at any time during reconstruction and repair, or upon completion of reconstruction and repair, the funds for the payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair are insufficient, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged apartments, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such assessments against apartment owners for damage to apartments shall be in proportion to the cost of reconstruction and repair of their respective units. Such assessments on account of damage to common elements shall be in proportion to the owner's obligation for common expenses.

11.6 Construction funds. The funds for payment of costs of reconstruction and repair after casualty, which shall consist of proceeds of insurance held by the Insurance Trustee and funds collected by the Association from assessments against apartment owners, shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the following manner:

(a) Association. If the total of assessments made by the Association in order to provide funds for the payment of costs of reconstruction and repair that is the responsibility of the Association is more than $10,000.00, then the sums paid upon such assessments shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee. In all other cases the Association shall hold the sums paid upon such assessments and disburse them in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair.

(b) Insurance Trustee. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of casualty, and the sums deposited with the Insurance Trustee by the Association from collections of assessments against apartment owners on account of such casualty shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner and order:

(1) Association - Lesser damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair that is the responsibility of the Association is less than $10,000.00, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs upon the order of the Association; provided, however, that upon request to the Insurance Trustee by a mortgagee that is a beneficiary of an insurance policy the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, such fund shall be disbursed in the manner provided for the reconstruction and repair of major damage.

(2) Association - Major damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair that is the responsibility of the Association is more than $10,000.00, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner required by the Board of Directors of the Association.

(3) Apartment owner. The portion of insurance proceeds representing damage for which the responsibility of reconstruction and repair lies with an apartment owner shall be paid to the said owner, or if there is a mortgagee endorsement as to the apartment, then to the owner thereof and the mortgagee jointly, who may use such proceeds as they may be advised.

(4) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair shall be from insurance proceeds. If there is a balance in a construction fund after payment of all costs of the reconstruction and repair for which the fund is established, such balance shall be distributed to the beneficial owners of the fund in the manner elsewhere stated; except, however, that the part of a distribution to a beneficial owner that is not in excess of assessments paid by such owner to the construction fund shall not be made payable to any mortgagee.

(5) Certificate. Notwithstanding the provisions of this instrument, the Insurance Trustee shall not be required to determine whether or not sums paid by the apartment owners upon assessments shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee, nor to determine whether the disbursements from the construction fund are to be upon approval of an architect or otherwise, nor whether a disbursement is to be made from the construction fund nor to determine the payee nor the amount to be paid. Instead, the Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association made by its President and Secretary as to any or all of such matters and stating that the sums to be paid are due and properly payable and stating the name of the payee and the amount to be paid; provided, that when a mortgagee is required in this instrument to be named as payee, the Insurance Trustee shall also name the mortgagee as a payee of any distribution of insurance proceeds to a unit owner; and further, provided, that when the Association, or a mortgagee that is the beneficiary of an insurance policy whose proceeds are included in the construction fund, so requires, the approval of an architect named by the Association shall be first obtained by the Association prior to disbursements in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair.

12. Use Restrictions. The use of the Condominium property shall be in accordance with the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists and the apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land:

12.1 Apartments. Each of the apartment units shall be occupied only as a single family private dwelling by the owner, and members of his family not less than ten (10) years of age, subject to the provisions of 12.3 hereof. Except as reserved to Developer, no apartment unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit.

12.2 Common elements and limited common elements. The common elements and limited common elements shall be used only for the purpose for which they are intended in the furnishings of services and facilities for the enjoyment of the apartments.

12.3 Children. No persons who have not yet attained the age of ten (10) years shall be permitted to reside in any of the apartments except with the written consent of the Board of Directors of the Association, or of the Developer, provided such written consent when once given and relied upon in connection with the purchase and acquisition of a condominium apartment unit may not thereafter be revoked or terminated without the consent of the apartment owner, and provided further, that children under such age may visit and temporarily reside in an apartment unit provided such temporary residence shall not exceed thirty (30) days within any consecutive twelve month period.

12.4 Pets. No pets shall be maintained or kept in any of the apartments other than goldfish, tropical fish and the like, and such birds as canaries, parakeets and the like, except as may be specifically provided for and authorized by the rules and regulations of the Association as they may be from time to time adopted or amended, or pursuant to the written consent of the Board of Directors of the Association, or of the Developer, provided, such written consent when once given and relied upon in connection with the purchase and acquisition of a condominium apartment unit may not thereafter be revoked or terminated without the consent of the apartment owner.

12.5 Nuisances. No nuisances shall be allowed upon the Condominium property, nor any use or practice that is the source of annoyance to residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the property by its residents. All parts of the Condominium shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and no rubbish, refuse or garbage allowed to accumulate nor any fire hazard allowed to exist. No apartment owner shall permit any use of his apartment or make any use of the common elements that will increase the cost of insurance upon the Condominium Property.

12.6 Lawful use. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Condominium property nor any part of it; and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction shall be observed. The responsibility of meeting the requirements of governmental bodies for maintenance, modification or repair of the Condominium property shall be the same as the responsibility for the maintenance and repair of the property concerned.

12.7 Leasing of Apartments. After approval by the Association as elsewhere required, entire apartments may be rented provided the occupancy is only by the lessee, his family and guests, provided that no apartment shall be leased to an unmarried person under the age of twenty-five (25) years, except with the express written consent of the Board of Directors of the Association, or of the Developer, provided, such written consent when once given and relied upon in connection with the purchase and acquisition of a condominium apartment unit may not thereafter be revoked or terminated without the consent of the apartment owner; nor shall any leased apartment be occupied, permanently, or temporarily, by any person under the age of thirteen (13) years, except with the express written consent of the Association or of the Developer. No rooms may be rented and no transient tenants shall be accommodated in any apartment, nor shall any lease of an apartment release or discharge the owner thereof of compliance with any of his obligations and duties as an apartment owner. All of the provisions of this Declaration, the Charter and By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations of the Association pertaining to use and occupancy shall be applicable and enforceable against any person occupying an apartment unit as a tenant to the same extent as against an apartment owner, and a covenant upon the part of each such tenant to abide by the rules and regulations of the Association, and the terms and provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, Charter and By-Laws, and designating the Association as the apartment owner's agent for the purpose of and with the authority to terminate any such lease agreement in the event of violations by the tenant of such covenant shall be an essential element of any such lease or tenancy agreement, whether oral or written, and whether specifically expressed in such agreement or not.

12.8 Signs. No "For Sale" or "For Rent" signs or other displays or advertising shall be maintained on any part of the common elements, limited common elements or apartments, excepting that the right is specifically reserved in the Developer to place "For Sale" or "For Rent" signs in connection with any unsold or unoccupied apartment it may from time to time own, and the same right is reserved to any institutional first mortgagee which may become the owner of an apartment, and to the Association as to any apartment which it may own.

12.9 Parking spaces. No truck or other commercial vehicle shall be parked in any parking space except with the written consent of the Board of Directors, except such temporary parking in spaces provided for the purpose as may be necessary to effectuate deliveries to the Condominium, the Association, or Unit Owners and residents.

12.10 Interior hallways. All doors between apartments and interior hallways shall be kept closed at all times when not being used for ingress or egress. Screen or screen doors on entrances between apartment units and interior corridors are prohibited unless specifically authorized by the Association.

12.11 Regulations. Reasonable regulations concerning the use of condominium property may be made and amended from time to time by the Association in the manner provided by its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. Copies of such regulations and amendments shall be furnished by the Association to all apartment owners and residents of the Condominium upon request.

12.12 Proviso. Provided, however, that until Developer has completed all of the contemplated improvements and closed the sale of all of the apartments of the Condominium, neither the apartment owners nor the Association, nor the use of the Condominium property shall interfere with the completion of the contemplated improvements and the sale of the apartments. Developer may make such use of the unsold units, common elements and common areas, and of the Recreation Area, as may facilitate such completion and sale, including, but not limited to, maintenance of a sales office, showing of the property, and the display of signs.

13. Maintenance of community interests. In order to maintain a community of congenial residents who are financially responsible and thus protect the value of the apartments, the transfer of apartments by any owner other than the Developer shall be subject to the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists and the apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land:

13.1 Transfers subject to approval.

(a) Sale. No apartment owner may dispose of an apartment or any interest in an apartment by sale without approval of the Association.

(b) Lease. No apartment owner may lease an apartment without approval of the Association, except with the express written consent of the Board of Directors of the Association or of the Developer, and such consent when once given and relied upon in connection with the purchase and acquisition of a Condominium Apartment Unit may not thereafter be revoked or terminated without the consent of the apartment owner.

(c) Gift. If any apartment owner shall acquire title by gift, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

(d) Devise or inheritance. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by devise or inheritance, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

SEE ASSA REG 503

(e) Other Transfers. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by any manner not considered in the foregoing sub-sections, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

13.2 Approval by Association. The approval of the Association that is required for the transfer of ownership of apartments shall be obtained in the following manner:

(a) Notice to Association.

(1) Sale. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser and such other information concerning the intended purchaser as the Association may reasonably require. Such notice at the apartment owner's option may include a demand by the apartment owner that the Association furnish a purchaser of the apartment if the proposed purchaser is not approved; and if such demand is made, the notice shall be accompanied by an executed copy of the proposed contract to sell.

(2) Lease. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide lease of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended lessee, such other information concerning the intended lessee as the Association may reasonably require and an executed copy of the proposed lease.

(3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. An apartment owner who has obtained his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or by any other manner not previously considered, shall give to the Association notice of the acquiring of his title, together with such information concerning the apartment owner as the Association may reasonably require, and a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the owner's title.

(4) Failure to give notice. If the above required notice to the Association is not given, then at any time after receiving knowledge of a transaction or event transferring ownership or possession of an apartment, the Association at its election and without notice may approve or disapprove the transaction or ownership. If the Association disapproves the transaction of ownership, the Association shall proceed as if it had received the required notice on the date of such disapproval.

(b) Certificate of approval.

(1) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association, in recordable form.

action. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association, in non-recordable form.

(3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers.

If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the continuance of the apartment owner's ownership of his apartment. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association in recordable form.

(c) Approval of corporate owner or purchaser. Inasmuch as the Condominium may be used only for residential purposes and a corporation cannot occupy an apartment for such use, if the apartment owner, purchaser or lessee of an apartment is a corporation, the approval of ownership or lease by the corporation, may be conditioned by requiring that all persons occupying the apartment be approved by the Association.

(d) Screening Fees. The Association may require the deposit of a reasonable screening fee simultaneously with the giving of notice of intention to sell or lease, or of transfer by gift, devise or inheritance, for the purpose of defraying the Association's expenses and providing for the time involved in determining whether to approve or disapprove the transaction or continued ownership by a transferee, said screening fee to be a sum equal to one (1%) percent of the sales price of condominium apartment unit being sold, or two (2%) percent of the annual rental in the event of a lease of a condominium unit, provided, that the minimum screening fee shall not be less than One Hundred Dollars ($100.00), and the maximum fee shall not exceed One Hundred Fifty Dollars ($150.00) in connection with the rental of a condominium unit, and said fee shall be in the sum of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) in the event of transfer by gift, devise, or inheritance.

(e) Failure to give notice. If notice to the Association as hereinabove required is not given, then at any time after receiving knowledge of a transaction or event transferring ownership of an apartment, the Association, at its election and without notice, may approve or disapprove the transaction. If the Association disapproves the transaction, the Association shall proceed as if it had received the required notice on the date of such disapproval. Any sale, mortgage or lease which is not authorized pursuant to the terms and provisions of this Declaration shall be void unless subsequently approved in writing by the Association.

13.3 Disapproval by Association. If the Association shall disapprove a transfer of ownership of an apartment, the matter shall be disposed in the following manner:

(a) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale and if the notice of sale given by the apartment owner shall so demand, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association shall deliver or shall by registered mail to the apartment owner an agreement to purchase the apartment signed by a purchaser approved by the Association, or an agreement to purchase signed in behalf of the Association by its President and attested by its Secretary in which event the apartment owner shall sell the apartment to the named purchaser at the price and upon the terms stated in the disapproved contract to sell, excepting that at the option of the named purchaser the purchase price may be paid in cash at closing.

(1) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days after delivery or mailing of the agreement to purchase, or upon the date designated in the disapproved contract, whichever date shall be later.

(2) A certificate of the Association executed by any of its officers in recordable form shall be delivered to the purchaser.

(3) If the Association shall fail to purchase or provide a purchaser upon demand of the apartment owner in the manner provided, or if the purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, the proposed transaction shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, in recordable form.

(b) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, the apartment owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing, and the lease shall not be made.

(c) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt from the apartment owner of the notice and information required to be furnished, the Association shall deliver or mail by registered mail to the apartment owner an agreement to purchase the apartment concerned by a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:

(1) The sale price shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such agreement. In the absence of agreement as to price, the price shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser. In any such action for specific performance the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover his reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs incurred.

(2) The purchase price shall be paid in cash.

(3) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days following determination of the sale price.

(4) A certificate of the Association executed by any of its officers in recordable form shall be delivered to the purchaser.

standing disapproval such ownership shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, in recordable form, to the apartment owners.

13.4 Mortgage. No apartment owner may mortgage his apartment nor any interest in it without approval of the Association except to a bank, life insurance company or a savings and loan association, or to a seller to secure a portion or all of the purchase price. The approval of any other mortgage may be upon conditions determined by the Association or may be arbitrarily withheld.

13.5 Exceptions. The foregoing provisions of this section entitled "Maintenance of Community Interests" shall not apply to a transfer to or purchase by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that acquires its title as the result of owning a mortgage upon the apartment concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor, his successors or assigns, or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such provisions apply to a transfer, sale or lease by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that so acquires its title. Neither shall such provisions require the approval of a purchaser who acquires the title to an apartment at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding provided by law, such as but not limited to execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale. Neither shall such provisions apply to the Developer, or any person who is an officer, stockholder or director of the Developer, or to any corporation having some or all of its directors, officers or stockholders in common with the Developer, and any such person or corporation shall have the right to freely sell, lease, transfer or otherwise deal with the title and possession of an apartment unit without complying with the provisions of this section, and without the approval of the Association.

13.6 Unauthorized transactions. Any sale, mortgage or lease not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be void unless subsequently approved by the Association.

13.7 Recording approval. Whenever in this section an approval in recordable form is required of the Association in connection with the sale, transfer or pledging of an apartment, it is understood and agreed that the said approval shall not be recorded except at the same time and simultaneously with the recording of the Deed or mortgage, as appropriate.

13.8 Notice of lien or suit.

(a) An apartment owner shall give notice, in writing to the Association of every lien upon his apartment other than for authorized mortgages, taxes and special assessments within five (5) days after the attaching of the lien.

(b) Notice of suit. An apartment owner shall give notice, in writing, to the Association of every suit or other proceeding which may affect the title to his apartment, such notice to be given within five (5) days after the apartment owner shall receive knowledge of notice thereof.

(c) Failure to comply. Failure to comply with this sub-section concerning liens will not affect the validity of any judicial sale.

13.9 Whenever in this section an approval is required of the Association in connection with the sale, transferring, leasing or pledging of any apartment, and such approval shall not have been obtained pursuant to the provisions hereof, failure upon the part of the Association to object in writing to such sale, transfer, pledging or leasing within ninety (90) days after the date thereof, or within thirty (30) days of the date upon which the purchaser, transferee or lessee shall take possession of the premises, whichever date shall be later, shall constitute waiver by the Association of the written consent otherwise required by this section.

13.10 Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, at such time as the Developer no longer has the right to designate the membership of the Board of Directors of the Association, or a majority of the membership of the Board of Directors, the approval or disapproval of the Association to a proposed sale, lease or other transfer shall be determined by a committee of the Board of Directors comprised of the Directors elected from the Condominium wherein the apartment to be sold, leased or otherwise transferred is located, and the action of such committee shall, for the purposes of this article, constitute the action of the Association.

14. Purchase of apartments by Association. The Association shall have the power to purchase apartments subject to the following provisions:

14.1 Decision. The decision of the Association to purchase an apartment shall be made by its Directors, without the necessity of approval by its membership, except as is hereinafter expressly provided for.

14.2 Limitation. If at any time the Association shall be the owner or agreed purchaser of three (3) or more apartments in the Condominium, it may not purchase any additional apartments therein without the prior written approval of seventy-five (75%) percent of the members eligible to vote. If at any time the Association shall be the owner or agreed purchaser of an aggregate of ten (10) or more apartments in all of the Condominiums administered and operated by it, it may not purchase any additional apartments without the prior written approval of seventy-five (75%) percent of the members eligible to vote. A member whose apartment is the subject matter of the proposed purchase shall be ineligible to vote thereon, provided, however, that the limitations hereof shall not apply to apartments to be purchased at public sale resulting from a foreclosure of the Association's lien for delinquent assessments where the bid of the Association does not exceed the aggregate of the amounts due by virtue of any and all senior or superior liens against the apartment plus the amount due the Association, nor shall the limitation of this paragraph apply to apartments to be acquired by the Association in lieu of foreclosure of such liens if the consideration therefor does not exceed the cancellation of such lien.

15. Right of Developer. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Developer shall have the right of first refusal to purchase any apartment unit which the Association shall have the right to purchase upon the same price and at the same terms available to the Association, such right of first refusal to continue until such time as the Developer shall have completed, sold and closed on the sale of all apartments in the Condominium, or until two (2) years after the recordation of this Declaration, whichever shall first occur.

16. Compliance and default. Each apartment owner shall be governed by and shall comply with the terms of the Declaration of Condominium, Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws and the Regulations adopted pursuant to those documents, and all of such as they may be amended from time to time. Failure of an apartment owner to comply with such documents and regulations shall entitle the Association or other apartment owners to the following relief in addition to the remedies provided by the Condominium Act:

16.1 Negligence. An apartment owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his negligence or by that of any member of his family or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees, but only to the extent that such expense is not met by the proceeds of insurance carried by the Association. An apartment owner shall pay the Association the amount of any increase in its insurance premiums occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of an apartment of its appurtenances, or of the common elements, by the apartment owner.

16.2 Costs and attorneys' fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged failure of an apartment owner or the Association to comply with the terms of the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation of the Association, the By-Laws, or the Regulations adopted pursuant to them, and the documents and regulations as they may be amended from time to time, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding, and the Association, if it shall prevail, shall further be entitled to recover such reasonable attorneys' fees as may be awarded by the Court, provided, however, no attorneys' fees shall be recovered against the Association in any such action.

16.3 No waiver of rights. The failure of the Association or any apartment owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation of the Association, the By-Laws or the Regulations shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

17. Amendments. Except as elsewhere provided otherwise, this Declaration of Condominium may be amended in the following manner:

17.1 Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which a proposed amendment is to be considered.

17.2 A Resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment may be proposed by the Board of Directors of the Association or by those members of the Association owning apartments in the Condominium. Owners may propose such an amendment by instrument in writing directed to the President or Secretary of the Board signed by persons owning not less than ten (10%) percent of the apartments in the Condominium. Amendments may be proposed by the Board of Directors by action of a majority of the Board at any regularly constituted meeting thereof. Upon an amendment being proposed as herein provided the President or, in the event of his refusal or failure to act, the Vice-President elected by the Directors from the Condominium, or, in the event of his refusal or failure to act, then the Board of Directors, shall call a meeting of those members of the Association owning apartments in the Condominium to be held not sooner than fifteen (15) days nor later than sixty (60) days thereafter for the purpose of considering said amendment. Directors and members not present in person or by proxy at the meeting considering the amendment may express their approval in writing, provided such approval is delivered to the Secretary at or prior to the meeting. Except as elsewhere provided, such approvals must be either by:

ENC 4854 PAR 509

(a) Not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the entire membership of the Board of Directors and not less than fifty-one percent (51%) of the apartment owners; or

(b) Not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the votes of all of the apartment owners in the Condominium; or

(c) In the alternative, an amendment may be made by an agreement signed and acknowledged by all Condominium unit owners in the manner required for the execution of a deed.

(d) Until the first election of Directors from the Condominium by the apartment owners, this Declaration of Condominium may be amended by the Developer by recording such amendment in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, and no meeting of the Condominium unit owners nor any approval thereof need be had, provided the amendment does not increase the number of Condominium units nor alter the boundaries of the common elements beyond the extent provided for under the provisions of Section 3 hereof.

17.3 Proviso. Provided, however, that no amendment shall discriminate against any apartment owner nor against any apartment or class or group of apartments, unless the apartment owners so affected shall consent; and no amendment shall change any apartment nor the share in the common elements appurtenant to it, nor increase the owner's share of the common expenses, unless the record owner of the apartment concerned and all record owners of mortgages on such apartment shall join in the execution of the amendment. Neither shall any amendment make any change in the section entitled "Insurance" nor in the section entitled "Reconstruction or Repair After Casualty" unless the record owners of all mortgages upon the Condominium shall join in the execution of such amendment. No amendment shall make any change which would in any way affect any of the rights, privileges, powers and options of the Lessor under the terms of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease, unless the Lessor shall join in the execution of such amendment, nor shall any amendment make any change which would in any affect any of the rights, privileges, powers, and/or options herein provided in favor of or reserved to the Developer, or any person who is an officer, stockholder or director of the Developer, or any corporation having some or all of its directors, officers or stockholders in common with the Developer, unless the Developer shall join in the execution of such amendment.

17.4 Execution and recording. A copy of each amendment shall be attached to a certificate certifying that the amendment was duly adopted, and the said certificate shall be executed by the President of the Association and attested to by the Secretary with the formalities of a deed, and shall be effective upon recordation thereof in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.

18. Termination. The Condominium may be terminated in the following manner, in addition to the manner provided by the Condominium Act:

18.1 Destruction. If it is determined as elsewhere provided that the apartment building shall not be reconstructed because of major damage, the Condominium plan of ownership will be terminated without agreement.

18.2 Agreement. The Condominium may be terminated at any time by the approval in writing of all record owners of apartments and all record owners of mortgages on apartments. Notice of a meeting at which the proposed termination is to be considered shall be given not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of such meeting. Provided that the approval of owners of not less than seventy-five (75%) percent of the common elements, and the approval of all record owners of mortgages upon the apartments, are obtained at the meeting or within thirty (30) days thereafter, then the approving owners shall have an option to buy all of the apartments of the owners not approving of termination, said option to continue for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of such meeting. Approval by an owner of an apartment unit, or of a mortgage encumbering an apartment unit, shall be irrevocable until expiration of the aforesaid option to purchase the apartment of owners not so approving, and if the option to purchase such apartment is exercised, then such approval shall be irrevocable. The option to purchase the apartments of units not approving of termination shall be exercised upon the following terms:

(a) Exercise of option. The option shall be exercised by delivery or mailing by registered mail to each of the record owners of the apartments to be purchased an agreement to purchase signed by the record owners of apartments who will participate in the purchase. Such agreement shall indicate which apartments will be purchased by each participating owner and shall require the purchase of all apartments owned by owners not approving the termination, but the agreement shall effect a separate contract between each seller and his purchaser.

(b) Price. The sales price for each apartment shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the delivery or mailing of such agreement, and in the absence of agreement as to price, it shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser. In any such action for specific performance the prevailing party shall also be entitled to his reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred in connection therewith.

(c) Payment. The purchase price shall be paid in cash, provided, in the event there shall be a pre-existing first mortgage on the condominium unit, and the mortgages thereof shall be agreeable, then the purchaser shall have the option of assuming the remaining principal obligation thereof, and that portion of the purchase price which is in excess of such mortgage shall be payable in cash at closing.

(d) Closing. The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days following determination of the sale price.

18.3 Certificate. Termination of the Condominium in either of the foregoing manners shall be evidenced by a certificate of the Association executed by its President and Secretary certifying to the facts effecting the termination, said certificate to become effective upon being recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.

18.4 Shares of owners after termination. After termination of the Condominium the apartment owners shall own the Condominium property and all assets of the Association attributable to the Condominium as tenants in common in undivided shares in the common elements appurtenant to the owners' apartments prior to the termination.

18.5 Amendment. This section concerning termination cannot be amended without consent of all apartment owners and of all record owners of mortgages upon the apartments.

19. Severability. The invalidity in whole or in part of any covenant or restriction, or any section, sub-section, sentence, clause, phrase or word, or other provision of this Declaration of Condominium and the Articles of Incorporation, By-Laws and Regulations of the Association shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions.

The Recreation Area shall be administered by the Association and shall be available for the use of apartment owners without discrimination and without charge except where specifically authorized by this Declaration, except that the Association may adopt regulations providing for charging for exclusive use of the facilities by an apartment owner from time to time if such exclusive use is made available to all apartment owners, and the Association may further adopt regulations providing for a surcharge for the use of such facilities by guests of the owners. Association, and shall be available for the use of the unit owners without discrimination and without charge as provided in this Declaration and further that the Association may adopt regulations providing for charging for exclusive use of the facilities by unit owners from time to time as such exclusive use is made available to all unit owners, and the Association may further adopt regulations providing for a surcharge for the use of such facilities by guests of the owners.

As various unit owners may not wish to avail themselves for the benefits of the Recreation Area Purchase and prefer to continue recreation lease payments (including all costs of living escalation payments) provided for in the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease, and as additional security for the Recreation Area Mortgage, the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease shall be maintained and not cancelled by the Association until the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage, as aforescribed, is fully satisfied. All Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease assessments, made under the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease shall belong to the Association, and for so long as the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage is not in default, the Association's obligation to the Grantor of the Recreation Area shall be for the aforescribed Recreation Area Note and Mortgage payment and payments made pursuant to the Indemnification Agreement. In the event of a default under the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage, whereby the Mortgages shall be entitled to receive such Recreation Lease payments, the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage payments shall be credited towards the deficiency owed to the Lessor under the Recreation Lease for Recreation Lease payments accruing while the mortgage was not in default. Upon full payment and satisfaction of the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage all right, title and interest of the Lessor in and to the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease shall pass to the Association. If the Association elects at that time, the Recreation Lease may be cancelled. It is the intention of the Association and the Grantor that the interest of the Lessor and Lessee under the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease not be merged as a result of such purchase of the Recreation Area by the Association."

11. Paragraph 5 shall be amended to hereinafter read as follows:

"5. Liability for Common Expenses Each unit owner shall be liable for a proportionate share of the common expenses, such share being the same as the undivided share in the common elements appurtenant to his unit. 12. Subparagraph 7.3 shall be amended to hereinafter read as follows:

"7.3 Recreation Area Maintenance, repair, replacement, alteration and improvement of the Recreation Area shall be by the Association at the Association's expense, pursuant to the terms of the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease, the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement and the Recreation Area Mortgage."

13. Subparagraph 7.2 shall be amended to hereinafter read as follows:

"7.2 Lien for Assessment The Association shall have a lien against each condominium unit for any unpaid assessments against the unit owner thereof, and for interest accruing thereon, which lien shall also secure reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien, whether or not legal proceedings are initiated; provided, however, that no lien for assessments shall become effective until recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida. Said lien shall be recorded among the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, by filing a claim therein which states the legal description of the apartment unit, the amount claimed to be due, and said lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by the lien, together with all costs incurred in recording and enforcing said lien, shall have been paid. Such Claims of Lien may be signed and verified by an officer of the Association, or by a managing agent of the Association or its attorney in fact. Upon full payment the party making payment shall be entitled to a recordable Satisfaction of Lien, to be prepared and recorded at his expense. All such liens shall be subordinate to the lien of institutional first mortgages or the Recreation Area Mortgage recorded prior to the date of recording the Claim of Lien, and all such liens may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association in a like manner as a foreclosure on the Mortgage on the real property. In any such foreclosure the owner of the apartment unit subject to the lien shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the apartment, and the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Association may also, at its option, sue to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments without thereby waiving the liens securing same. In the event an institutional mortgagee of a First mortgage of record or mortgagee of a Recreation Area Mortgage shall obtain title to the apartment unit as a result of the foreclosure of a first mortgage or Recreation Area Mortgage, or in the event an institutional mortgagee as to a first mortgage of record or Recreation Area Mortgagee as to a Recreation Area Mortgage, shall obtain title to an apartment unit as a result of a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure of such first mortgage or Recreation Area Mortgage, such acquirer of title, its successors and assigns, shall not be liable for that share of the common expenses or assessments by the Association, to the extent permissible by law, chargeable to the apartment, or the owner thereof, which becomes due prior to the acquisition of title by such institutional mortgagee, Recreational Area

Mortgagee or purchaser at foreclosure sale, but shall be responsible for its proportionate share of the common expenses or assessments subsequent to acquiring title, except as provided in Paragraph 7.3(b) below with regard to the assessment for the purchase of the Recreation Area by the Association."

14. A Subparagraph 7.3 shall be added to hereinafter read as follows:

"7.3 Additional Assessments

(a) Each unit owner is hereby assessed the sum set forth in Exhibit "B" to the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement (which Agreement has been recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, and which is hereby incorporated by reference as Exhibit "F" as though attached hereto and made a part hereof, as a contribution to the capital of the Association. The proceeds of such assessment shall be utilized by the Association for a capital acquisition, i.e.: to purchase the Recreation Area pursuant to the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement which has been recorded in O.R. Book 8786, Page 646, Public Records of Broward County, Florida, which is hereby incorporated by reference as Exhibit "F" as though attached hereto and made a part hereof.

paid in cash, shall bear interest at a rate of six (6%) per cent per annum on the unpaid balance thereof, shall be payable in three hundred sixty (360) equal monthly installments of principal and interest with the first such monthly payment commencing February 15, 1980 and may be prepaid by a unit owner at any time as provided in said Recreation Area Purchase Agreement. Each unit owner executing an amended Pledge Agreement shall, unless or until a default occurs on the part of the Association in connection with the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage, be relieved of any assessment for the payment by the Association in connection with the Ninety-Nine (99) Year lease. If any unit owner executing an amended Pledge Agreement, as provided in the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement, fails to pay any assessments, or any installments thereon, the Grantor under said Recreation Area Purchase documents, in addition to all of the remedies provided by law and the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement, the Recreation Area Mortgage and the Indemnification Agreement, shall have a mortgage lien against the condominium unit of such defaulting owner for the remaining unpaid balance of such assessments, which may be thereupon accelerated and be due and payable in full, together with all interest thereon, and fees incurred in enforcing said lien and payment of said assessments. The foreclosure of said lien against a condominium unit owner for his proportionate share of monies shall not be considered or construed as a termination or cancellation of the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement or the Recreation Area Note or Mortgage in accordance with the terms of said agreements nor by operation of law. The mortgage lien herein provided shall be subordinate to the lien of any institutional first mortgage encumbering a condominium unit, as provided in the Recreation Area Mortgage. Any unit owner not executing an amended Pledge Agreement as provided in the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement shall be liable in full for his proportionate share of the Recreation Lease payments (including all costs of living escalation payment) due under the terms of the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease.

(b) If any institutional first mortgagee of record or other purchaser of a condominium parcel (unit) obtains title thereto as a result of the foreclosure of an institutional first mortgage, or where such institutional first mortgage accepts a deed to such condominium parcel in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer shall remain obligated for that portion of the assessment attributable to such condominium unit as provided for herein accruing subsequent to the date such acquirer of title obtains title thereon. Upon foreclosure and/or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure, by a mortgagee, the Association shall reassess such unit for the assessment attributable to such unit remaining unpaid as of such date plus interest thereon accruing subsequent to the date of such conveyance; provided, that such assessment, if not paid promptly in cash, shall bear interest at a rate of six (6%) per cent per annum simple interest and may be paid in equal monthly installments, each such monthly installment (consisting of principal and interest) shall be in the amount set forth in Exhibit "u" to the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement, which Agreement has been recorded in O.R. Book 8786, Page 646, Public Records of Broward County, Florida, which is hereby incorporated by reference as Exhibit "F" as though attached hereto and made a part hereof, and each such acquirer to title shall and does hereby consent to the M-F imposition of such assessment."

15. A subparagraph 7.5 shall be added to hereinafter read as follows:

"7.5 Unit Owner Paid-Up License

(a) A unit owner who has fully paid the Recreation Area assessment attributable to that unit shall be deemed upon receipt of the payments by the Grantor under the Recreation Area Mortgage, to have been granted a Co-equal Possessory License which shall not: (1) grant to any such unit owner any right, title or interest in and to the fee simple title of the said Recreation Area, (2) grant to any such unit owner, his heirs and lawful assigns, any other right, license or privilege with respect to use of the Recreation Area except for recreational purposes in accordance with the reasonable rules or regulations of the owner of the fee simple title, or (3) grant to such unit owner any right to use of the Recreation Area except for its intended purposes and in the physical condition the owner of the fee simple title permits to exist at the time of use.

Any such Co-equal Possessory License shall not be a possessory right which is extinguished by foreclosure of the Recreation Area Mortgage. The lawful holder of such Co-equal Possessory License shall not be subject to additional assessment for the payment of the Recreation Area Note nor subject to any assessment for rent under the Ninety-Nine (99) Year Lease, but shall continue to be subject to assessments for common expenses for such Recreation Area for taxes, insurance, utilities and other maintenance expenditures, and under the Indemnification Agreement.

(b) Upon payment in full of said assessments, the Association shall deliver to the unit owner making such payment a receipt therefor, in recordable form, joined in by the Recreation Area Mortgagee, reflecting that no further assessments on account of the purchase price of the Recreation Area shall be made against the said unit. A copy of such SATISFACTION AND RELEASE FOR RECREATION AREA ASSESSMENT is attached hereto as Exhibit "G", and made a part hereof."

16. Subparagraph 13.11 shall be added to hereinafter read as follows:

"13.11 Any sale or conveyance of a condominium unit (or interest therein) which has not previously been pledged or hypothecated as additional security for the payment of such obligation by the unit owner or his predecessor in title having executed and recorded an Amended Pledge Agreement, a copy of which is attached to the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement as an Exhibit, shall be null and void unless said purchaser shall, on or before closing on said unit, execute and place of record such Amended Pledge Agreement, pledging and hypothecating said unit as additional collateral for the Association's performance of its obligations under the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement and the Association shall not grant its approval, as provided herein, to any sale or other conveyance without the parties having first complied fully with this provision."

17. Subparagraph 17.3 shall be amended to hereinafter read as follows:

"17.3 Proviso Provided, however, that no amendment shall discriminate against any apartment owner nor against any apartment or class or group of apartments unless the apartment owners so affected shall consent; and no amendment shall change any apartment nor the share in the common elements appurtenant to it, nor increase the owner's share of the common expenses, unless the record owner of the apartment concerned and all record owners of mortgages on such apartment shall join in the execution of the amendment. Neither shall an amendment make any change in the section entitled "Insurance" nor in the section entitled "Reconstruction or Repair After Casualty" unless the record owners of "all" mortgages upon the Condominium shall join in the execution of such amendment. No amendment shall make any change which would in any way affect any of the rights, privileges, powers and options of the Lessor under the terms of the Ninety-Nine Year Lease, unless the Lessor shall join in the execution of such amendment, nor shall any amendment make any change which would in any way affect any of the rights, privileges, powers, and/or options herein provided in favor of or reserved to the Grantor or Mortgagee under the terms of the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement and the Recreation Area Note or Mortgage unless such Grantor or Mortgagee joins in the execution of such Amendment.

22. Paragraph 20 shall hereinafter be added to read as follows:

"20. Authority of the Association to Purchase Recreation Area: Notwithstanding any provision in this Declaration of Condominium or any Exhibits attached hereto to the contrary:

(a) The Condominium Association shall have the full power, right, and authority to purchase the , aforescribed Recreation Area pursuant to the terms of the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement and the Exhibits attached thereto.

(b) Condominium Association directors and officers shall have the right to acquire the Recreation Area pursuant to the terms of the Recreation Area Purchase Agreement and the Exhibits attached thereto for and on behalf of the Condominium Association.

(c) In connection with the acquisition of the Recreation Area, the Condominium Association officers shall have the right to pledge the Condominiums and the Condominium Associations full faith and credit by signing the Mortgage and Mortgage Note, to execute the Indemnification Agreement, and to guarantee payment in conjunction with said purchase.

(d) The Condominium Association shall have the right to assess unit owners for their proportionate share of the recreation area purchase price, the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage, and the Indemnification Agreement.

(e) The Condominium Association shall have the right to charge against the general funds of the Condominium Association any monies necessary to make up payments in the event of shortages created by failure of unit owners to make monthly payments toward the unit owners portion of the Recreation Area Note and Mortgage and to pay all costs and expenses under the Indemnification Agreement. The Condominium Association shall have the right to place a lien on a unit owner's apartment for such unit owner's failure to pay his obligations herein.

(f) The Condominium Association has the right to replenish the general funds of the Association in the event of shortages described above; to charge all owners of units their proparate share of such shortage as a common expense.

(g) The Condominium Association has the right to foreclose upon a Condominium unit for failure of the individuals to pay their respective shares of such expenses as provided for under their Pledge Agreements."

were duly adopted by a vote of approval of more than 66 2/3% of the entire membership of the Board of Directors and approved by more than 66 2/3% of the unit owners, of each of the aforesaid condominiums:

1. ARTICLE 12, USE RESTRICTIONS, shall be amended to read as follows:

12. Use Restrictions. The use of the Condominium property shall be in accordance with the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists and the apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land:

12.1 Apartments. Each of the apartment units shall be occupied only as a private dwelling subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Condominium. No apartment unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit.

12.2 Common elements and limited common elements. The common elements and limited common elements shall be used only for the purpose for which they are intended in the furnishing of services and facilities for the enjoyment of the apartments.

12.3 Children. No persons who have not yet attained the age of ten (10) years shall be permitted to reside in any of the apartments. Children under such age may visit and temporarily reside in an apartment unit provided that the apartment resident shall also be in residence during such visit and provided such temporary residence shall not exceed thirty (30) days within any consecutive twelve month period.

parts of the Condominium shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and no rubbish, refuse or garbage allowed to accumulate nor any fire hazard allowed to exist. No apartment owner shall permit any use of his apartment or make any use of the common elements that will increase the cost of insurance upon the Condominium Property.

12.6 Lawful use. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Condominium property nor any part of it; and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction shall be observed. The responsibility of meeting the requirements of governmental bodies for maintenance, modification or repair of the Condominium property shall be the same as the responsibility for the maintenance and repair of the property concerned.

12.7 Leasing of Apartments. After approval by the Association as elsewhere required, entire apartments may be rented provided the occupancy is only by the lessee, his family and guests. No leased apartment shall be occupied, permanently, or temporarily, by any person under the age of ten (10) years. No unit shall be leased for less than four months, and not more than one lease per unit shall be permitted to commence in any twelve month period. Upon the approval of any lease by the Association the prospective lessee shall deposit with the Condominium Association the sum of $250.00 or an amount equivalent to one (1) month's rent, whichever is less (which shall bear no interest) as security for any damage to common elements or association property. No rooms may be rented and no transient tenants shall be accommodated in any apartment, nor shall any lease of any apartment release or discharge the owner thereof of compliance with any of his obligations and duties as an apartment owner. All of the provisions of this Declaration, the Charter and By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations of the Association pertaining to use and occupancy shall be applicable and enforceable against any person occupying an apartment unit as a tenant to the same extent as against an apartment owner, and a covenant upon the part of each such tenant to abide by the rules and regulations of the Declaration of Condominium, Charter and By-Laws, and designating the Association as the apartment owner's agent for the purpose of and with the authority to terminate any such lease agreement in the event of violations by the tenant of such covenant shall be an essential element of any such lease or tenancy agreement, whether oral or written, and whether specifically expressed in such agreement or not.

12.8 Signs. No "FOR SALE" or "FOR RENT" signs or other displays or advertising shall be maintained on any part of the common elements, limited common elements or apartments.

12.9 Parking spaces. No truck, recreational vehicle, or any commercial vehicle of any kind whatsoever shall be parked in any parking space except such temporary parking as may be necessary to effectuate deliveries to the Condominium, the Association, or Unit Owners and residents.

12.10 Interior hallways. All doors between apartments and interior hallways shall be kept closed at all times when not being used for ingress and egress. Screen or screen doors on entrances between apartment units and interior corridors are prohibited.

12.11 Regulations. Reasonable regulations concerning the use of condominium property may be made and amended from time to time by the Association in the manner provided by this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. Copies of such regulations and amendments shall be furnished by the Association to all apartment owners and residents of the Condominium.

2. Article 13, MAINTENANCE OF COMMUNITY INTERESTS, shall be amended to read as follows:

13. Maintenance of community interests. In order to maintain a community of congenial residents who are financially responsible and thus protect the value of the apartments, the transfer of apartments by any owner shall be subject to the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists and the apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land:

13.1 Transfers subject to approval.

(a) Sale. No apartment owner may dispose of any apartment or any interest in an apartment by sale without the prior written approval of the Association.

(b) Lease. No apartment owner may lease an apartment without the prior written approval of the Association.

(c) Gift. If any apartment owner shall acquire title by gift, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the written approval of the Association.

(d) Devise or inheritance. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by devise or inheritance, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the written approval of the Association.

(e) Other Transfers. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by any manner not considered in the fore-going sub-sections, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the written approval of the Association.

13.2 Approval by Association.

(a) Notice to Association.

(1) Sale. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to that Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser, a fully executed copy of the complete proposed sales contract, along with any and all addenda, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars and such other information concerning the intended purchaser as the Association may reasonably require. As part of this Notice, the intended purchaser must schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee selected by the Board of Directors. No decision shall be rendered as to this intended sale until the intended purchaser appears for the scheduled personal interview.

(2) Lease. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide lease of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended lessee, a fully executed copy of the proposed written lease agreement, which shall be on a written lease agreement form approved by the Association, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, and such other information as the Association may reasonably require. As part of this Notice, the intended lessee must schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee selected by the Board of Directors. No decision shall be rendered as to this intended lease until the intended lessee appears for the scheduled personal interview. In the event lessee moves in without prior written permission of the Association, the Association shall take all necessary legal acts, including, but not limited to seeking an injunction terminating this unauthorized tenancy, and in such event, the lessee and the unit owner shall be jointly and severally liable for court costs and for reasonable attorneys fees.

(3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. An apartment owner who has obtained his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or by any other manner not previously considered, shall give to the Association notice of the acquiring of his title, together with such information concerning the apartment owner as the Association may reasonably require, a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the owner's title, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars and shall schedule a personal interview with a screening committee selected by the Board of Directors.

(4) Failure to give notice. Any event transferring ownership or possession of an apartment which shall occur without the required prior notice having been given to the Association shall be void ab initio. The Association shall take any and all legal acts, including but not limited to injunctive relief, as may be necessary to terminate such prohibited transfer of ownership or possession. The Association shall recover its court costs and its reasonable attorney's fees.

(b) Certificates of Approval.

(1) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale, within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association, in recordable form.

(2) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association, in (non-) recordable form.

(3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the continuance of the apartment owner's ownership of his apartment. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association in recordable form.

(c) Approval of corporate owner or purchaser. Inasmuch as the Condominium may be used only for residential purposes and a corporation cannot occupy an apartment for such use, if the apartment owner, purchaser or lessee of an apartment is a corporation, the approval of ownership or lease by the corporation, shall be conditioned upon all natural persons intending to occupy the condominium Unit receiving prior written approval from the Association for such occupancy.

(d) Screening Fees. The Association shall require the payment of a Fifty ($50.00) Dollar screening fee, together with the application for sale or lease, or for transfer by gift, devise or inheritance, for the purpose of defraying the Association's expenses in investigating the prospective buyer, lessee or transferee and changing the Association's records.

13.3 Disapproval by Association. If the Association shall disapprove a transfer of ownership of an apartment, the matter shall be disposed in the following manner:

(a) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the apartment owner an agreement to purchase the apartment signed by a purchaser approved by the Association, or an agreement to purchase signed in behalf of the Association by its President and attested by its Secretary, in which event the apartment owner shall sell the apartment to the named purchaser at the price and upon the terms stated in the disapproved contract to sell, excepting that at the option of the named purchaser the purchase price may be paid in cash at closing.

(1) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days after delivery or mailing of the agreement to purchase, or upon the date designated in the disapproved contract, whichever date shall be later.

(2) A certificate of the Association executed by any of its officers in recordable form shall be delivered to the purchaser.

(3) If the Association shall fail to purchase or provide a purchaser, or if the purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, the proposed transaction shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, in recordable form.

(b) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, the apartment owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing, and the lease shall not be made.

(c) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt from the apartment owner of the notice and information required to be furnished, the Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the apartment owner a written agreement to purchase the apartment offered by a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:

fees and court costs incurred.

(2) The purchase price shall be paid in cash.

(3) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days following determination of the sale price.

(4) A certificate of the Association executed by any of its officers in recordable form shall be delivered to the purchaser.

(5) If the Association shall fail to provide a purchaser as required by this instrument, or if a purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, then notwithstanding disapproval such ownership shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, in recordable form, to the apartment owners.

13.4 [DELETED]

13.5 Exceptions. The foregoing provisions of this section entitled "Maintenance of Community Interests" shall not apply to a transfer to or purchase by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that acquires its title as a result of owning a mortgage upon the apartment concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor, his successors or assignees, or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such provisions apply to a transfer, sale or lease by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that so acquires its title. Neither shall such provisions require the approval of a purchaser who acquires the title to an apartment at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding provided by law, such as but not limited to execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale.

13.6 Unauthorized transactions. Any sale, or lease not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be void.

13.7 Recording approval. Whenever in this section an approval form is required of the Association it is understood and agreed that the said approval shall not be recorded except at the same time and simultaneously with the recording of the instrument representing the event for which the approval was given.

13.8 The approval or disapproval of the Association to a proposed sale, lease or other transfer shall be determined by a committee of the Board of Directors comprised of the Directors elected from the Condominium wherein the apartment to be sold, leased or otherwise transferred is located, and the action of such committee shall, for the purposes of this article, constitute the action of the Association.

Expenses of maintenance, operation, repair, protection or replacement of the common elements, limited common elements, Association property, Recreation Area, and of the portions of the units, if any, to be maintained by the Association, and the costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the Association. Common expenses also include reasonable transportation services, insurance for directors and officers and all other types of insurance pursuant to Article 10, Section 10.2 of this Declaration, road maintenance and operation expenses, in-house communications, security services, and pest control services to the units and common elements, which are reasonably related to the general benefit of the unit owners even if such expenses do not attach to the common elements or property of the condominium, and the cost of a master antenna television system or duly franchised cable television service obtained pursuant to a bulk contract.

2. Article 7, Sections 7.1(b) (1), (2) and 7.4 of the Declaration of Condominium are amended to read as follows:

(b) By the Apartment Owner. The responsibility of the apartment owner for maintenance, repair and replacement, shall be as follows:

Included within the responsibility of the apartment owner shall be windows, window frames, screens, door frames and doors opening into or onto his apartment, conduits, pipes, plumbing and wiring serving only his apartment (wherever located), plumbing fixtures, electrical fixtures, appliances, air conditioner and heating equipment (wherever located), water heaters and built-in cabinets. The Apartment Owner shall also maintain, repair and replace, at his, her or its expense, all portions of a Hurricane Shutter, including such portion of the common elements to which the Hurricane Shutter is attached, which the Apartment Owner installs, which cost shall also include the cost of removal of same if necessary or required in order for the Association to maintain, repair, replace or protect the common elements or Association property.

there shall be no material alteration or substantial addition to the further improvements of common elements without the prior approval, in writing, by record owners of sixty-six and two thirds (66 2/3%) percent of all apartment unit owners in the Condominium, together with the approval of the Association. The cost of such alteration or improvement shall be a common expense and so assessed. Any such alteration or improvement shall not interfere with the rights of any apartment owner without his consent. ~~This paragraph shall have no application to the right vested in the Developer pursuant to the provisions of paragraph 3.2 and 3.2(a) hereof.~~ The installation, replacement, and maintenance of hurricane shutters in accordance with the specifications adopted by the Board shall not be deemed a material alteration or substantial addition to the common elements.

3. Article 8, Sections 8.1, 8.2, 8.3 and 8.4 of the Declaration of Condominium are amended to read as follows:

8. Assessments. The making and collection of assessments against apartment owners for common expenses, and for reserves as may from time to time be established by the Association, shall be pursuant to the By-Laws of the Association, subject to the following provisions:

8.1 Liability for Assessments. A unit owner, regardless of how his title has been acquired, including a purchaser at a judicial sale, is liable for all assessments which come due while he is the unit owner. The grantee is jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the grantor for his share of the common expenses up to the time of transfer of title, without prejudice to any right the grantee may have to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee. However, a first mortgagee who acquires title to the unit by foreclosure or by deed in lieu of foreclosure shall be liable for the share of common expenses or assessments attributable to the condominium parcel or chargeable to the former unit owner only the maximum extent permitted by Florida Statute, Section 718.116(1)(a), as same may be amended or renumbered from time to time. A first mortgagee acquiring title to a condominium parcel as a result of foreclosure, or a deed in lieu of foreclosure, may not, during the period of its ownership of such parcel, whether or not such parcel is unoccupied, be excused from the payment of some or all of the common expenses coming due during the period of such ownership. The liability for assessments may not be avoided by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any common element or by abandonment of the unit for which the assessments are made.

8.21 Interest; Late Fee; Application of Payments. Assessments and installments on such assessments paid on or before ten (10) five-(5) days after the date when due, shall not bear interest or late fees, but all sums not paid on or before ten (10) thirty-(30) days after the date when due shall bear interest at the maximum rate of interest allowed by law rate-of-ten-(10%) percent-per-annum from the date when due until paid, together with an administrative late fee in the highest amount permitted by law, or such lesser amount as the Board may, from time to time, determine by duly adopted rule, for each such delinquent assessment. Any payment received by the Association shall be applied first to any interest accrued by the Association, then to any administrative late fee, then to any costs and reasonable attorney's fees incurred in collection, and then to the delinquent assessment. The foregoing method of applying payments shall be applicable notwithstanding any restrictive endorsement, designation, or instruction placed on or accompanying a payment.

8.32 Lien for Assessment. The Association shall have a lien against each condominium unit for any unpaid assessments against the unit owner thereof, and for interest accruing thereon, which lien shall also secure reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the Association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien, whether or not legal proceedings are initiated; provided, however, that no lien for assessments shall become effective until recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida. Said lien shall be recorded among the Public Records of Broward County, Florida, by filing a claim therein which states the legal description of the apartment unit, the amount claimed to be due, and said lien shall continue in effect until all sums secured by the lien, together with all costs incurred in recording and enforcing said lien, shall have been paid. Such Claims of Lien may be signed and verified by an officer of the Association, or by a managing agent of the Association or its attorney in fact. Upon full payment the party making payment shall be entitled to a recordable Satisfaction of Lien, to be prepared and recorded at his expense. All such liens shall be subordinate to the lien of institutional first mortgages or the Recreation Area Mortgage recorded prior to the date of recording the Claim of Lien, and all such liens may be foreclosed by suit brought in the name of the Association in a like manner as a foreclosure on the Mortgage on the real property. In any such foreclosure the owner of the apartment unit subject to the lien shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the apartment, and the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same. The Association may also, at its option, sue to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments without thereby waiving the liens securing same. In the event an institutional mortgagee of a first mortgage of record or mortgagee of a Recreation Area Mortgage shall obtain title to the apartment unit as a result of the foreclosure of a first mortgage or Recreation Area Mortgage, or in the event an institutional mortgagee as to a first mortgage of record or Recreation Area Mortgage as to a Recreation Area Mortgage, shall obtain title to an apartment unit as a result of a conveyance in lieu of foreclosure of such first mortgage or Recreation Area Mortgage, such acquirer of title, its successors and assigns, shall not be liable for that share of the common expenses or assessments by the Association, to the extent permissible by law, chargeable to the apartment, or the owner thereof, which becomes due prior to the acquisition of title by such institutional mortgagee, Recreational Area Mortgagee or purchaser at foreclosure sale, but shall be responsible for its proportionate share of the common expenses or assessments subsequent to acquiring title, except as provided in Paragraph 7.3(b) below with regard to the assessment for the purchase of the Recreation Area by the Association.

The Association has a lien on each condominium parcel for any unpaid assessments or installments thereon, with interest, late fees and for reasonable attorney's fees incurred by the Association which are incident to the collection of the assessment or enforcement of the lien, whether suit be brought or not. The lien is effective from and shall relate back to April 1, 1992.

However, as to first mortgages of record, the lien is effective from and after recording of a claim of lien. The claim of lien shall secure all unpaid assessments, interest, late fees, costs and attorney's fees which are due and which may accrue subsequent to the recording of the claim of lien. The Association may bring an action in its name to foreclose a lien for assessments in the manner a mortgage or real property is foreclosed and may also bring an action to recover a money judgment for the unpaid assessments without waiving any claim of lien. The Association is entitled to recover its reasonable attorney's fees incurred in either a lien foreclosure action or an action to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments. If the unit owner remains in possession of the unit after a foreclosure judgment has been entered, the unit owner shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the unit. If the unit is rented or leased during the pendency of the foreclosure action, the Association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the rent, the expenses of the receiver to be paid for by the unit owner.

8.43 Additional Assessments. ...

(f) The Association shall obtain and maintain adequate fidelity bonding of all persons who control or disburse funds of the Association in an amount not less than the minimum sum required by law. All persons providing management services to the Association and required to be licensed pursuant to law shall provide the Association with a certificate of insurance covering such persons under a fidelity bond in an amount not less than the minimum sum required by law. The cost of bonding such management persons may be reimbursed by the Association.

No rooms may be rented and no transient tenants shall be accommodated in any apartment, nor shall any lease of any apartment release or discharge the owner thereof for compliance with any of his obligations and duties as an apartment owner. All of the provisions of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Charter and By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations of the Association pertaining to use and occupancy shall be applicable and enforceable against any person occupying an apartment unit as a tenant or other invitee to the same extent as against an apartment owner, and the provisions thereof shall be deemed expressly incorporated into any lease of a unit, and a & covenant upon the part of each such tenant to abide by the rules and regulations of the Association, the Declaration of Condominium, Charter, and By-Laws, and Condominium Act, and designating the Association as the apartment owner's agent for the purpose of and with the authority to terminate any such lease agreement and/or evict or otherwise remove the tenant or other invitee occupying a unit in the event of violations by the tenant or such other invitee of such covenant shall be an essential element of any such lease or tenancy agreement, whether oral or written, and shall be deemed expressly incorporated into any lease of a unit, whether specifically expressed in such agreement or not.~~

(1) Sale. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser, a fully executed copy of the complete proposed sales contract, along with any and all addenda, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount provided below of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars and such other information concerning the intended purchaser as the Association may reasonably require. As part of this Notice, the intended purchaser must schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee selected by the

Board of Directors. No decision shall be rendered as to this intended sale until the intended purchaser appears for the scheduled personal interview.

(2) Lease. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide lease of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended lessee, a fully executed copy of the proposed written lease agreement, which shall be on a written lease agreement form approved by the Association, a completed application, a screening fee and security deposit in the amount provided below of Fifty-($50.00)-Dollars, and such other information as the Association may reasonably require. As part of this Notice, the intended lessee must schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee selected by the Board of Directors. No decision shall be rendered as to this intended lease until the intended lessee appears for the scheduled personal interview. In the event lessee moves in without prior written permission of the Association, the Association shall take all necessary legal acts, including, but not limited to, seeking an injunction terminating this unauthorized tenancy, and in such event, the lessee and the unit owner shall be jointly and severally liable for court costs and for reasonable attorney's fees.

(3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. An apartment owner who has obtained his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or by any other manner not previously considered, shall give to the Association notice of the acquiring of his title, together with such information concerning the apartment owner as the Association may reasonably require, a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the owner's title, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount provided below of Fifty-($50.00)-Dollars and shall schedule a personal interview with a screening committee selected by the Board of Directors.

(d) Screening Fees; Security Deposit. The Association shall require the payment of a Fifty-($50.00)-Dollar screening fee, together with the application for sale or lease, or for transfer by gift, devise or inheritance, for the purpose of defraying the Association's expense in investigating the prospective buyer, lessee or transferee and changing the Association's records. Every request for approval of a proposed sale, lease or other transfer, whether by gift, devise, inheritance or otherwise, shall be accompanied by an approval fee, per applicant, in the highest amount permitted by law, or such lesser amount as the Board may, from time to time, determine by duly adopted rule. The approval fee shall be paid with the giving of the notice of transfer, and the notice of transfer shall not be complete unless and until the approval fee is paid. The time frame for approval of the transfer shall not begin to run until all documentation has been received, including any additional documentation or information reasonably requested by the Association, and the approval fee is paid. In the event payment of the approval fee is in a form other than cash, cashier's check, certified check or money order, payment shall not be deemed received unless and until the funds have cleared. In addition to such approval fee, in the event of a lease of a unit, the unit owner or prospective lessee shall place a security deposit, in the highest amount permitted by law, or such lesser amount as the Board may, from time to time, determine by duly adopted rule, into an escrow account maintained by the Association. The security deposit shall protect against damages to the common elements or Association property, and shall serve as security for the full and faithful performance by the unit owner and prospective lessee of the terms, provisions, obligations and duties set forth in the Condominium Act, Declaration, Articles, Bylaws and Rules and Regulations (hereinafter Condominium Documents), including the timely payment of assessments and fines and the payment of attorney's fees incurred by the Association in connection with any default or breach of the Condominium Documents by the unit owner or prospective lessee. In the event the security deposit, or any portion thereof, shall be applied as provided herein, the unit owner or lessee shall deposit with the Association, upon written demand therefor, an amount sufficient to restore such security deposit to its original amount, and the failure to do so shall constitute a material violation of the Condominium Documents. Any lessee who vacates or abandons the unit at or prior to the expiration of the term specified in the written lease shall give at least seven (7) days written notice by certified mail or personal delivery to the Association prior to vacating or abandoning the unit, which notice shall include the address where the lessee may be reached. Failure of the lessee to give such notice shall relieve the Association of the notice requirement to impose a claim against the deposit and relieve the Association of the requirement to remit the balance, if any, of the deposit. It shall be presumed that the lessee has abandoned the unit if the lessee is absent from the unit for a period of time equal to one-half the time for periodic rental payments, unless the lessee has notified the Association, in writing, of an intended absence. The remedies provided for herein are cumulative and in addition to any other remedy available to the Association, and nothing herein shall be deemed to limit or exclude any of the Association's rights or remedies or method of enforcement.

13.5 Exceptions. The foregoing provisions of this section entitled "Maintenance of Community Interests" shall not apply to a transfer to or purchase by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that acquires its title as a result of owning a first mortgage upon the apartment concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor, his successors or assignees, or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such provisions apply to a transfer, sale or lease by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that so acquires its title. Neither shall such provisions shall, however, require the approval of a purchaser, other than a first mortgagor, who acquires the title to an apartment at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding provided by law, such as but not limited to execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale, in accordance with Section 13.2(a)(3) above.

7. Article 16, Section 16.4 of the Declaration of Condominium is added to read as follows:

16.4 Fines. In addition to the means for enforcement provided elsewhere herein, the Association shall have the right to levy fines against a unit owner or the unit owner's guests, licensees, lessees, invitees or occupants in the manner provided herein.

(a) The Board of Directors shall appoint a Covenant Enforcement Committee (hereinafter Committee) which shall be charged with determining whether there is probable cause that any of the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, the Articles of Incorporation, the Bylaws, the Rules and Regulations of the Association, or the Condominium Act are being or have been violated. In the event that the Committee determines an instance of such probable cause, it shall report same to the Board of Directors and the Committee shall thereupon provide written notice to the person(s) alleged to be in violation, and the owner of the unit which that person occupies or occupied at the time the violation was committed, if that person is not the owner, of the opportunity for a hearing before the Committee as provided below. The notice shall also specify, and it is hereby provided, that each recurrence of the alleged violation or each day during which it continues shall be deemed a separate offense, subject to a separate fine in the highest amount permitted by law.

(b) The Committee shall hold a hearing, after providing the person(s) alleged to be in violation, and the owner of the unit which that person occupies or occupied at the time the violation was committed, if that person is not the owner, with reasonable notice of not less than fourteen (14) days stating the date, time and place of the hearing, the provisions of the condominium documents, Association Rules or Condominium Act which have been violated and a short and plain statement of the matters asserted by the Committee. The Committee shall hear any defense to the charges of the Committee, including any witnesses that the alleged violator, the unit owner, or the Committee may produce. Any party at the hearing may be represented by counsel.

(c) Subsequent to any hearing, the Committee shall determine whether there is sufficient evidence of a violation or violations as provided herein. If the Committee determines that there is sufficient evidence, the Committee shall forward its findings, conclusions and recommendations to the Board of Directors. Based upon such Committee findings, conclusions and recommendations, the Board of Directors may levy a fine for each violation in the amount provided herein. In the event the Board of Directors determines to levy a fine, the Board of Directors shall send a written notice to the violator and the unit owner, if the violator is not the unit owner, advising that the fine has been levied and requiring payment of the fine immediately upon receipt of such notice. The unit owner shall be jointly and severally liable with the violator for payment of all fines.

(d) Nothing herein shall be construed to interfere with any right that a unit owner may have to obtain from a violator occupying his unit payment in the amount of any fine or fines assessed against that unit.

(e) Nothing herein shall be construed as a prohibition of or a limitation on the right of the Association to pursue other means to enforce the provisions of the various condominium documents, Association Rules or the Condominium Act, and all rights and remedies of the Association shall be cumulative.

8. Article 17, Section 17.2(c) of the Declaration of Condominium is amended to read as follows:

The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights and remedies to which such Director or Officer may be entitled.

Nothing herein shall require the Association to accept the lowest bid, nor limit the ability of the Association to obtain needed products and services in an emergency. This provision shall not apply if the business entity with which the Association desires to enter into a contract is the only source of supply within the County serving the Association. Notwithstanding the foregoing, contracts with employees of the Association, contracts for attorneys and accountants services, and any other contracts now or hereafter permitted to be excluded hereunder pursuant to Florida Statute, Section 718.3026, as same may be amended or renumbered from time to time, shall not be subject to this provision.

Providing nothing herein shall serve to prohibit or prevent the Board of Directors from imposing a lump sum assessment in case of immediate need or emergency. In the event that it should appear that the reserve fund of any condominium is substantially greater than that which is necessary, the Board of Directors may, by majority vote, elect to waive the payment of the monthly assessment for said condominium for as many months or part of month as the Board of Directors deems advisable.

(b) The specific purpose or purposes of any special assessment approved in accordance with the condominium documents shall be set forth in a written notice of such assessment sent or delivered to each unit owner. The funds collected pursuant to a special assessment shall be used only for the specific purpose or purposes set forth in such notice. Upon completion of such purpose or purposes, including the Board's determination that the purpose for which the special assessment was approved is no longer necessary, any excess funds will be considered common surplus and may, at the discretion of the Board, either be returned to the unit owners or applied toward future assessments. Notwithstanding the above, the unit owners may, by a vote of the majority of the members present at a duly called meeting of the Association, determine to use the funds collected by special assessment for a different purpose or purposes than as set forth in said notice.

~~6.7 Fidelity bonds may be required by the Directors for all persons handling or responsible for Association funds in such an amount as shall be determined by the Board. The premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the Association. Reserve funds and any interest accruing thereon shall remain in the reserve account for authorized reserve expenditures, unless their use for other purposes is approved in advance by a vote of the majority of the voting interests present at a duly called meeting of the particular Condominium to whose account the reserve belongs, or in the case of reserve accounts for items common to all Condominiums administered by the Association, by a vote of the majority of the voting interests present at a duly called meeting of the entire membership of the Association.~~
