- 11.1 Determination to reconstruct or repair. If any part of the Condominium property shall be damaged by easualty, whether or or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

- (a) Common element. If the damaged improvement is a common element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unloss it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be torminated.
- (b) (1) Lesser damage. If the damaged improvement is the apartment building, and if apartments to which fifty (50%) percent of the common elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Directors of the Association to be tenantable, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless within sixty (60) days after the casualty, it is determined by agreement in the manner elsewhere provided that the Condominium shall be terminated.
- (2) Major damage. If the damaged improvement is the apartment building, and if apartments to which more than fifty (50°) percent of the common elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Biroctors to be not tenantable, then the damaged property will not be reconstructed or repaired, and the Condeminium will be terminated without agreement as closwhere provided, unless within sixty (60) days after the canualty, the owners of eighty (80°) percent of the common elements agree in writing to such reconstruction or repair. construction or repair.
- (a) Cortificate. The Insurance Trustee may rely upon a certificate of the Association made by its President and attested by its Secretary as to whether or not the damaged property is to be reconstructed or repaired.
- 11.2 Flame and specifications. Any reconstruction or repair must be autofantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original building, or, in lieu thereof, according to plans and specifications approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, and if the damaged property is in the apartment building, by the owners of not less than eighty (80°) percent of the common elements, including the owners of all damaged apartments, together with the approval of the institutional mortgages helding first mortgages upon all damaged apartments, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. unreasonably withheld.
- 11.3 Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of the apartment for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the apartment owner, then the said owner shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after easualty. In all other instances the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after easualty shall be that of the Association.
- Estimates of conts. Immediately after a determination is made to rebuild or repair damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility of reconstruction and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to rebuild or repair.
- 11.5 Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to dufray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair by the Association, or if at any time during reconstruction and repair, or upon completion of reconstruction and repair, the funds for the payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair are insufficient, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged apartments, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such assessments against apartment owners for damage to apartments shall be in preportion to the cost of reconstruction and repair of their respective units. Such assessments on account of damage to common elements shall be in proportion to the owner's obligation for common expenses.

- 11.6 Construction funds. The funds for payment of coats of reconstruction and repair after casualty, which shall consist of proceeds of incurance held by the Insurance Trustee and funds collected by the Association from assessments against apartment owners, shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the following manner:
 - (a) Association. If the total of assessments made by the Association in order to provide funds for the payment of costs of reconstruction and repair that is the responsibility of the Association is more than $10,000.00, then the sums paid upon such assessments shall be deposited by the Association with the Insurance Trustee. In all other cases the Association shall hold the sums paid upon such assessments and disburse them in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair.
 - (b) Insurance Trustee. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of casualty, and the sums deposited with the Insurance Trustee by the Association from collections of assessments against apartment owners on account of such casualty shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner and
 - (1) Association Lesser damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair that is the responsibility of the Association is less than $10,000.00, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs upon the order of the Association; provided, however, that upon request to the Insurance Trustee by a mortgage that is a beneficiary of an insurance policy the proceeds of which are included in the construction fund, such fund shall be disbursed in the manner provided for the reconstruction and repair of major damage.
 - (2) Association Major damage. | 6 | 12-13-1972 | 5089 | 81 | 72-217518 | were duly adopted by a vote of approval of more than 66 2/3% of the entire membership of the Board of Directors and approved by more than 66 2/3% of the unit owners, of each of the aforesaid condominiums:

- ARTICLE 12, USE RESTRICTIONS, shall be amended to read as follows:
- 12. Use Restrictions. The use of the Condominium property shall be in accordance with the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists and the apartment hullding in useful condition exists upon the land:
- 12.1 Apartments. Each of the apartment units shall be occupied only as a private dwelling subject to the provisions of this Declaration of Condominium. No apartment unit may be divided or subdivided into a smaller unit.
- 12.2 Common elements and limited common elements. The common elements and limited common elements shall be used only for the purpose for which they are intended in the furnishing of services and facilities for the enjoyment of the apartments.
- 12.3 Children. No persons who have not yet attained the age of ten (10) years shall be permitted to reside in any of the apartments. Children under such age may visit and temporarily reside in an apartment unit provided that the apartment resident shall also be in residence during such visit and provided such temporary residence shall not exceed thirty (30) days within any consecutive twelve month period.
- 12.4 Pets. No pets other than goldfish, tropical fish and the like, and such birds as canaries, parakeets and the like, shall be maintained or kept in any of the apartments, except that pot(s) kept or maintained in any apartments prior to June 1, 1989, may continue to be kept or maintained in said apartment(s).
- 12.5 Nuisances. No nuisance shall be allowed upon the Condominium property, not any use or practice that is the source of annoyance to residents or which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the property by its residents.

parts of the Condominium shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and no rubbish, refuse or garbage allowed to accumulate nor any fire hazard allowed to exist. No apartment owner shall permit any use of his apartment or make any use of the common elements that will increase the cost of insurance upon the Condominium Property.

- 12.6 Lawful use. No immoral, improper, offensive or unlawful use shall be made of the Condominium property nor any part of it; and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction shall be observed. The responsibility of meeting the requirements of governmental bodies for maintenance, modification or repair of the Condominium property shall be the same as the responsibility for the maintenance and repair of the property concerned.
- 12.7 Leasing of Apartments. After approval by the Association as elsewhere required, entire apartments may be rented provided the occupancy is only by the lessee, his family and guests. No leased apartment shall be occupied, permanently, or temporarily, by any person under the age of ten (10) years. No unit shall be leased for less than four months, and not more than one lease per unit shall be permitted to commence in any twelve month period. Upon the approval of any lease by the Association the prospective leasee shall deposit with the Condominium Association the sum of $250.00 or an amount equivalent to one (1) month's rent, whichever is less (which shall bear no interest) as security for any damage to common elements or association property. No rooms may be rented and no transient tenants shall be accommodated in any apartment, nor shall any lease of any apartment release or discharge the owner thereof of compliance with any of his obligations and duties as an apartment owner. All of the provisions of this Declaration, the Charter and By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations of Association pertaining to use and occupancy shall be applicable and enforceable against any person occupying an apartment unit as a tenant to the same extent as against an apartment owner, and a covenant upon the part of each such tenant to abide by the rules and regulations of the Declaration of Condominium, Charter and By-Laws, and designating the Association as the apartment owner's agent for the purpose of and with the authority to terminate any such lease agreement in the event of violations by the tenant of such covenant shall be an essential element of any such lease or tenancy agreement, whether oral or written, and whether specifically expressed in such agreement or not.
- 12.8 Signs. No 'FOR SALE" or "FOR RENT" signs or other displays or advertising shall be maintained on any part of the common elements, limited common elements or apartments.
- 12.9 Parking spaces. No truck, recreational vehicle, or any commercial vehicle of any kind whatsoever shall be parked in any parking space except such temporary parking as may be necessary to effectuate deliveries to the Condominium, the Association, or Unit Owners and residents.
- 12.10 Interior hallways. All doors between apartments and interior hallways shall be kept closed at all times when not being used for ingress and egress. Screen or norgen doors on entrances between apartment units and interior corridors are prohibited.
- 12.11 Regulations. Reasonable regulations concerning the use of condominium property may be made and amended from time to time by the Association in the manner provided by this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. ('opies of such regulations and amendments shall be furnished by the Association to all apartment owners and residents of the Condominium.
- 2. Article 13, MAINTENANCE OF COMMUNITY INTERESTS, shall be amended to read as follows:

13. Maintenance of community interests. In order to maintain a community of congenial residents who are financially responsible and thus protect the value of the apartments, the transfer of apartments by any owner shall be subject to the following provisions as long as the Condominium exists and the apartment building in useful condition exists upon the land:

13.1 Transfers subject to approval.

- (a) Sale. No apartment owner may dispose of any apartment or any interest in an apartment by sale without the prior written approval of the Association.
- (b) Lease. No apartment owner may lease an apartment without the prior written approval of the Association.
- (c) Gift. If any apartment owner shall acquire title by gift, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the written approval of the Association.
- (d) Devise or inheritance. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by devise or inheritance, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the written approval of the Association.
- (e) Other Transfers. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by any manner not considered in the fore-going sub-sections, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the written approval of the Association.

13.2 Approval by Association.

(a) Notice to Association.

- (1) Sale. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to that Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser, a fully executed copy of the complete proposed sales contract, along with any and all addenda, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount of fifty ($50.00) Dollars and such other information concerning the intended purchaser as the Association may reasonably require. As part of this Notice, the intended purchaser must schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee selected by the Board of Directors. No decision shall be rendered as to this intended sale until the intended purchaser appears for the scheduled personal interview.
- (2) Lease. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide lease of his apartment or any interest in it shall give to the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended lease, a fully executed copy of the proposed written lease agreement, which shall be on a written lease agreement form approved by the Association, a completed application, a acroening fee in the amount of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars, and such other information as the Association may reasonably require. As part of this Notice, the intended lease must schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee schedule a personal interview with a Screening Committee schedule as to this intended lease until the intended lease appears for the scheduled personal interview. In the event lesses moves in without prior written permission of the Association, the Association shall take all necessary legal sets, including, but not limited to seeking an injunction terminating this uncuthorized tensing, and in such event, the lessee and the unit owner shall be jointly and severally liable for court costs and for reasonable attorneys fees.

- (3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers, An apartment owner who has obtained his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or by any other manner not previously considered, shall give to the Association notice of the acquiring of his title, together with such information concerning the apartment owner as the Association may reasonably require, a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the owner's title, a completed application, a screening fee in the amount of Fifty ($50.00) Dollars and shall schedule a personal interview with a screening committee selected by the Board of Directors.
- (4) Failure to give notice. Any event transferring ownership or possession of an apartment which shall occur without the required prior notice having been given to the Association shall be void ab initio. The Association shall take any and all legal acts, including but not limited to injunctive relief, as may be necessary to terminate such prohibited transfer of ownership or possession. The Association shall recover its court costs and its reasonable attorney's fees.

(h) Certificates of Approval,

- (1) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale, within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association, in recordable form.
- (2) lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the proposed transaction. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association, in [non-] recordable form.
- (3) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers, if the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association must either approve or disapprove the continuance of the apartment owner's ownership of his apartment. Approval shall not be unreasonably withheld. If approved, the approval shall be stated in a certificate executed by any officer of the Association in recordable form.
- (c) Approval of corporate owner or purchaser. Inasmuch as the Condominium may be used only for residential purposes and a corporation cannot occupy an apartment for such use, if the apartment owner, purchaser or loaded of an apartment is a corporation, the approval of ownership or loade by the corporation, shall be conditioned upon all natural persons intending to occupy the condominium Unit receiving prior written approval from the Association for such occupancy.
- (d) Soreening Fees. The Association shall require the payment of a Fifty ($50.00) Dollar screening fee, together with the application for sale or lease, or for transfer by gift, device or inheritance, for the purpose of defraying the Association's expenses in investigating the prospective buyer, lesses or transferee and changing the Association's records.

- 13.3 Disapproval by Association. If the Association shall disapprove a transfer of ownership of an apartment, the matter shall be disposed in the following manner:
- (a) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the apartment owner an agreement to purchase the apartment signed by a purchaser approved by the Association, or an agreement to purchase signed in behalf of the Association by its President and attested by its Secretary, in which event the apartment owner shall sell the apartment to the named purchaser at the price and upon the terms stated in the disapproved contract to sell, excepting that at the option of the named purchaser the purchase price may be paid in cash at closing.
 - (1) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days after delivery or mailing of the agreement to purchase, or upon the date designated in the disapproved contract, whichever date shall be later.
 - (2) A certificate of the Association executed by any of its officers in recordable form shall be delivered to the purchaser.
 - (3) If the Association shall fail to purchase or provide a purchaser, or if the purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, the proposed transaction shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, in recordable form.
- (b) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, the apartment owner shall be advised of the disapproval in writing, and the lease shall not be made.
- (c) Gift, devise or inheritance; other transfers. If the apartment owner giving notice has acquired his title by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt from the apartment owner of the notice and information required to be furnished, the Association shall deliver or mail by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the apartment owner a written agreement to purchase the apartment offered by a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:
 - determined by agreement between the seller and the purchaser within thirty (30) days from the receipt by the apartment owner of such agreement. In the absence of agreement as to fair market value, the fair market value shall be determined by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two licensed for appraisers, experienced in the South Florida condominium market, appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon the mean average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the decision rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser. In any such action for specific performance the preventing party shall be entitled to recover his reasonable attorney's fees and court costs incurred.

- (2) The purchase price shall be paid in cash.
- (3) The sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days following determination of the sale price.
- (4) A certificate of the Association executed by any of its officers in recordable form shall be delivered to the purchaser.
- (5) If the Association shall fail to provide a purchaser as required by this instrument, or if a purchaser furnished by the Association shall default in his agreement to purchase, then notwithstanding disapproval such ownership shall be deemed to have been approved, and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided, in recordable form, to the apartment owners.

13.4 [DRLETED]

- 13.5 Exceptions. The foregoing provisions of this section entitled "Maintenance of Community Interests" shall not apply to a transfer to or purchase by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that acquires its title as a result of owning a mortgage upon the apartment concerned, and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor, his successors or assignees, or through foreclosure proceedings; nor shall such provisions apply to a transfer, sale or lease by a bank, life insurance company, savings and loan association or other institution that so acquires its title. Neither shall such provisions require the approval of a purchaser who acquires the title to an apartment at a duly advertised public sale with open bidding provided by law, such as but not limited to execution sale, foreclosure sale, judicial sale or tax sale.
- 13.6 Unauthorized transactions. Any sale, or lease not authorized pursuant to the terms of this Declaration shall be void.
- 13.7 Recording approval. budget for each condominium administered by the Association for each calendar year that shall include the estimated funds required to defray the common expense and to provide and maintain funds to reserves for such condominium. The Board shall approve the ensuing year's budget at the December meeting. The budget shall include reserve accounts for capital expenditures and deferred maintenance for any item for which the deferred maintenance expense or replacement cost is greater than $10.000.00. or any other amount required pursuant to Section 718.112(2)(f)(2). Florida Statutes, as same may be amended or renumbered from time to time. These accounts shall include, but are not limited to, roof replacement, building painting, and pavement resurfacing, and any other accounts for which reserves may be required pursuant to Section 718.112(2)(f)(2). Florida Statutes, as same may be amended or renumbered from time to time. The amount to be reserved whall be computed by means of a formula which is based upon estimated life and estimated replacement cost or deferred maintenance expense of each reserve item. The Board may adjust replacement reserve assessments annually to take into account any extension of the useful life of a reserve item caused by deferred maintenance. The members may, by a vote of the majority of the members present at a duly called meeting of the association, determine for a fiscal year to provide no reserves or reserves less adequate than required herein.

6.3 Assessments.

(a) Assessments against the condominium unit owners for their share of the items of the budget shall be made for the calendar year annually in advance on or before December 20th preceding the year for which the assessments are made. Such assessments shall be due in twolve equal installments, payable on the first day of each month of the year for which the assessments are made. If an annual assessment is not made as required, an assessment shall be presumed to have been made in the amount of the last prior assessment, and monthly installment on such assessment shall be due upon each installment payment date until changed by an amended assessment. In the event the annual assessment proves to be insufficient the budget and assessments may be amended at any time by the Board of Directors.

Unpaid assessments for the remaining portion of the calendar year for which an amended assessment is made shall be payable in as many equal installments as there are full months of the calendar year left as of the date of such amended assessment, each such monthly installment to be paid on the first day of the month, commencing the first day of the next ensuing month. Providing nothing herein shall serve to prohibit or prevent the Board of Directors from imposing a lump sum assessment in case of immediate need or emergency. In the event that it should appear that the reserve fund of any condominium is substantially greater than that which is necessary, the Board of Directors may, by majority vote, elect to waive the payment of the monthly assessment for said condominium for as many months or part of month as the Board of Directors deems advisable.

(b) The specific purpose or purposes of any special assessment approved in accordance with the condominium documents shall be set forth in a written notice of such assessment sent or delivered to each unit owner. The funds collected pursuant to a special assessment shall be used only for the specific purpose or purposes set forth in such notice. Upon completion of such purpose or purposes, including the Board's determination that the purpose for which the special assessment was approved is no longer necessary, any excess funds will be considered common surplus and may, at the discretion of the Board, either be returned to the unit owners or applied toward future assessments. Notwithstanding the above, the unit owners may, by a vote of the majority of the members present at a duly called meeting of the Association, determine to use the funds collected by special assessment for a different purpose or purposes then as set forth in said notice.

AMENDMENTS TO THE DECLARATION OF CONDOMINIUM OF WATERGATE CONDOMINIUM NOS. 1-6

Article 12, Section 12.6 of the Declaration of Condominium is amended to read as follows:

12.6 "Leasing of Apartments". No unit shall be leased and leasing shall be prohibited during the 2-year period subsequent to the acquisition of title to a unit. After approval by the Association as elsewhere required, entire apartments may be rented provided the occupancy is only by the lessee, his family and guests. No unit shall be leased for less than four months, and not more than one lease per unit shall be permitted to commence in any twelve month period. No rooms may be rented and no transient tenants shall be accommodated in any apartment, nor shall any lease of any apartment release or discharge the owner thereof for compliance with any of his obligations and duties as an apartment owner. All of the provisions of the Condominium Act, this Declaration, the Charter and By-Laws, and the Rules and Regulations of the Association shall be applicable and enforceable against any person occupying an apartment unit as a tenant or other invitee to the same extent as against an apartment owner, and the provisions thereof shall be deemed expressly incorporated into any lease of a unit. A covenant upon the part of each tenant to abide by the rules and regulations of the Association, the Declaration of Condominium, Charter, and By-Laws, and Condominium Act, and designating the Association as the apartment owner's agent for the purpose of and with the authority to terminate any such lease agreement and/or evict or otherwise remove the tenant or other invitee occupying a unit in the event of violations by the tenant or such other invitee of such covenant shall be an essential element of any such lease or tenancy agreement, whether oral or written, and shall be deemed expressly incorporated into any lease of a unit, whether specifically expressed in such agreement or not.
